

Exhibit 1

PUC DECISIONS AND/OR LETTERS AFFIRMING THE COMMISSION'S JURISDICTION UNDER SETION 214(E)(6) OF THE ACT

Alabama

On March 12, 2002 the Alabama Public Service Commission issued an Order finding that its "jurisdiction to grant Eligible Telecommunications Carrier status for universal service purposes does not extend to providers to cellular services, broadband personal communications services, and commercial mobile radio services," and "wireless providers seeking ETC status should pursue their ETC designation request with the FCC."¹ A copy of the Order is attached.

Connecticut

The Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control has repeatedly confirmed that it lacks jurisdiction over a similarly situated ETC petitioner, stating "the Department does not regulate or license mobile carrier services' rates and charges and therefore, [] should apply to the Federal Communications Commission for purposes of being designated an ETC." An example of such a confirmation letter is attached.

Delaware

The Delaware Public Service Commission has repeatedly confirmed that it lacks jurisdiction over a similarly situated ETC petitioner, stating "under state law, the Delaware PSC does not currently exercise any form of supervisory jurisdiction over wireless commercial mobile radio service ("CMRS") providers. . . The Delaware Public Service Commission does not have jurisdiction under state law to designate CMRS providers . . . as an ETC." An example of such a confirmation letter is attached.

District of Columbia

The District of Columbia Public Service Commission has recently confirmed that it has no jurisdiction over wireless services, including the ability to designate carriers as ETCs pursuant to D.C. ST. § 34-2006(b). An example of such a confirmation letter is attached.

Florida

The general counsel of the Florida PSC has recently confirmed that due to recent changes in the Florida Statutes, the PSC is no longer the appropriate agency to consider a wireless ETC application. The Florida PSC stated "the Federal Communications Commission, rather than this Commission is the appropriate agency to consider [a CMRS provider's] bid for ETC status."

New Hampshire

¹ Pine Belt Cellular, Inc. and Pine Belt PCS, Inc., Petition for ETC status and/or clarification regarding the jurisdiction of the Commission to grant ETC status to wireless carriers, Docket U-4400, Order (March 12, 2002).

On December 5, 2003, the New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission issued an Order concluding that it lacks jurisdiction to consider petitions for ETC status filed by cellular carriers. An example of a confirmation letter is attached, where the General Counsel for the PUC stated the Commission "lacks state-law authority to regulate wireless carriers . . . The Commission concluded that the agency is likewise devoid of jurisdiction to consider a request for ETC designation [from a wireless carrier]."

New York

The New York Public Service Commission Control has repeatedly confirmed that it lacks jurisdiction over a similarly situated ETC petitioner. The Commission has stated "a mobile virtual network operator reselling wireless services . . . would not be subject to New York State Public Service Commission jurisdiction for the purpose of making an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier designation." An example of such a confirmation letter is attached.

North Carolina

On August 22, 2003, the North Carolina Utilities Commission released an Order concluding that the "Commission lacks jurisdiction over CMRS services and the appropriate venue for the designation of ETC status for such services is with the FCC."² A copy of the North Carolina Utilities Commission's Order is attached.

Tennessee

On April 11, 2003, the Tennessee Regulatory Authority issued an Order finding that its statutory "lack of jurisdiction over CMRS providers" precludes it from processing ETC petitions. A copy of the TRA Order is attached.³

Virginia

On April 9, 2004, the Virginia State Corporation Commission issued an Order stating that "§214(e)(6) of the Act is applicable" to wireless ETC petitions "because [the Virginia Commission] has not asserted jurisdiction over CMRS carriers," and that wireless ETC applicants "should apply to the Federal Communications Commission." A copy of the Commission Order is attached.⁴

PINE BELT CELLULAR, INC. and PINE BELT PCS, INC.,

Joint Petitioners

PETITION: For ETC status and/or clarification regarding the jurisdiction of the Commission to grant ETC status to wireless carriers.

DOCKET U-4400

ORDER

BY THE COMMISSION:

In a joint pleading submitted on September 11, 2001, Pine Belt Cellular, Inc. and Pine Belt PCS, Inc. (collectively referred to as "Pine Belt") each notified the Commission of their desire to be designated as universal service eligible telecommunications carriers ("ETCs") for purposes of providing wireless ETC service in certain of the non-rural Alabama wireline service territories of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth") and Verizon South, Inc. ("Verizon"). The Pine Belt companies noted their affiliation with Pine Belt Telephone Company, a provider of wireline telephone service in rural Alabama, but clarified that they exclusively provide cellular telecommunications and personal communications (collectively referred to as "CMRS" or "wireless") services in their respective service areas in Alabama in accordance with licenses granted by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC"). The pivotal issue raised in the joint pleading of Pine Belt companies is whether the Commission will assert jurisdiction in this matter given the wireless status of the Pine Belt companies.

As noted in the filing of the Pine Belt companies, state Commissions have primary responsibility for the designation of eligible telecommunications carriers in their respective jurisdictions for universal service purposes pursuant to 47 USC §214(e). The Commission indeed established guidelines and requirements for attaining ETC status in this jurisdiction pursuant to notice issued on October 31, 1997.

For carriers not subject to state jurisdiction, however, §214(e)(6) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 provides that the FCC shall, upon request, designate such carriers as ETCs in non-rural service territories if said carriers meet the requirements of §214(e)(1). In an FCC Public Notice released December 29, 1997 (FCC 97-419) entitled "Procedures for FCC designation of Eligible Telecommunications Carriers pursuant to §214(e)(6) of the Telecommunications Act", the FCC required each applicant seeking ETC designation from the FCC to provide, among other things, "a certification and brief statement of supporting facts demonstrating that the Petitioner is not subject to the jurisdiction of a state Commission."

The Pine Belt companies enclosed with their joint pleading completed ETC application forms as developed by the Commission. In the event the Commission determines that it does not have jurisdiction to act on the Pine Belt request for ETC status, however, the Pine Belt companies seek an affirmative written statement from the Commission indicating that the Commission lacks jurisdiction to grant them ETC status as wireless carriers.

The issue concerning the APSC's jurisdiction over providers of cellular services, broadband personal communications services, and commercial mobile radio services is one that was rather recently addressed by the Commission. The Commission indeed issued a Declaratory Ruling on March 2, 2000, in Docket 26414 which concluded that as the result of certain amendments to the Code of Alabama, 1975 §40-21-120(2) and (1)(a) effectuated in June of 1999, the APSC has no authority to regulate, in any respect, cellular services, broadband personal communications services and commercial mobile radio services in Alabama. Given the aforementioned conclusions by the Commission, it seems rather clear that the Commission has no jurisdiction to take action on the Application of the Pine Belt companies for ETC status in this jurisdiction. The Pine Belt companies and all other wireless providers seeking ETC status should pursue their ETC designation request with the FCC as provided by 47 USC §214(e)(6).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED BY THE COMMISSION, That the Commission's jurisdiction to grant Eligible Telecommunications Carrier status for universal service purposes does not extend to providers of cellular services, broadband personal communications services, and commercial mobile radio services. Providers of such services seeking Eligible Telecommunications Carrier status should accordingly pursue their requests through the Federal Communications Commission.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That this Order shall be effective as of the date hereof.

DONE at Montgomery, Alabama, this 12th day of March, 2002.

Re: Request for Letter Clarifying Jurisdiction Over Wireless ETC Petitions

Dear Ms. Hankins:

The Department of Public Utility Control (Department) acknowledges receipt of your October 25, 2010 letter filed on behalf of Boomerang Wireless, LLC d/b/a Ready Mobile (Ready Mobile) requesting clarification as to whether the Department claims jurisdiction to designate wireless eligible telecommunications carriers (ETC) in Connecticut.

The Department does not regulate or license mobile carrier services' rates and charges and therefore, Ready Mobile should apply to the Federal Communications Commission for purposes of being designed an ETC.

Sincerely,

RE: Conexions LLC

Dear Mr. Keller:

You have requested a statement confirming that the Delaware Public Service Commission ("PSC") lacks the jurisdiction to designate your client, Conexions, LLC ("Conexions"), as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier ("ETC") under 47 U.S.C. § 214(e). You have represented that Conexions is a new mobile virtual network operator who seeks to participate in the FCC's Lifeline support program for qualifying low-income consumers.

Under state law, the Delaware PSC does not currently exercise any form of supervisory jurisdiction over wireless commercial mobile radio service ("CMRS") providers. See 26 Del. C. § 102(2) (excluding "telephone service provided by cellular technology, or by domestic public land mobile radio service" from the definition of "public utility"); 26 Del. C. § 202(c) (providing that the Delaware Commission has "no jurisdiction over the operation of domestic public land mobile radio service provided by cellular technology service or over rates to be charged for such service or over property, property rights, equipment of facilities employed in such service"). In fact, in granting ETC status in Delaware for Celco Partnership d/b/a Bell Atlantic Mobile, the FCC accepted the Delaware PSC's confirmation at that time that it did not have jurisdiction under state law to designate CMRS providers as ETCs. See Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service; Celco Partnership d/b/a Bell Atlantic Mobile Petition for Designation as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier, Memorandum Opinion and Order, 16 FCC Rcd. 39 (2000), at ¶¶ 3-4. There have been no changes to state law regarding the PSC's authority over CMRS providers since the Celco decision.

I hope this addresses your request for confirmation that the Delaware Public Service Commission does not have jurisdiction under state law to designate CMRS providers, such as Conexions LLC, as an ETC.

Dear Mr. Orvis and Ms. Lacey:

Thank you for your May 24, 2011 letter requesting information on whether the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia ("Commission") designates wireless telecommunications carriers as eligible telecommunications carriers ("ETC") for the purposes of receiving federal universal service funding. Please be advised that, pursuant to section 34-2006(b) of the District of Columbia Code, the Commission does not have jurisdiction over wireless carriers. Thus, the Commission has no authority to designate wireless telecommunications carriers as ETCs.

Re: Undocketed – TAG Mobile, LLC's ETC Designation

Dear Mr. Orvis:

We received your May 25, 2011 letter requesting a statement that the Florida Public Service Commission's jurisdiction to grant ETC designation to TAG Mobile, LLC changed with Governor Scott's approval of HB 1231, the telecom reform bill.

This letter acknowledges that Governor Scott's approval of HB 1231, the telecom reform bill, revises Chapter 364, Florida Statutes, thereby changing the Commission's jurisdiction regarding telecommunications companies. I direct your attention to Chapter 364, Florida Statutes, including the revisions by HB 1231 for the proposition that the Federal Communications Commission, rather than this Commission is the appropriate agency to consider TAG Mobile, LLC's bid for ETC status.

Re: Conexions, LLC

Dear Mr. Keller:

This is in response to your letter to the Commission, received July 10, 2009, concerning the above-referenced telecommunications carrier. You requested a statement from the Commission that Conexions, LLC (Conexions) is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, inasmuch as this will affect how Conexions proceeds with efforts to become designated as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier (ETC) for purposes of receiving universal service support pursuant to the federal Telecommunications Act.

Your attention is directed to a published order of the Commission, RCC Minnesota, Inc., 88 NH PUC 611 (2003) (Order No. 24,245). In that order, the Commission acknowledged that it lacks state-law authority to regulate wireless carriers, id. at 615, citing Section 362:6 of the New Hampshire Revised Statutes Annotated, and therefore the Commission concluded that the agency is likewise devoid of jurisdiction to consider a request for ETC designation from the carrier. In my judgment, Conexions as a user of both cellular and PCS (personal communications service) spectrum to provide commercial mobile radio service, may rely on the RCC Minnesota decision for the proposition that the Federal Communications Commission, as opposed to the New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission, is the appropriate agency to consider Conexions's bid for ETC status.

Please feel free to call me at 603-271-6005 if I can be of further assistance.

Re: i-wireless CMRS Jurisdiction

We have received a letter from i-wireless, LLC (i-wireless), requesting a statement that the New York State Public Service Commission does not exercise jurisdiction over CMRS providers for the purpose of making determinations regarding Eligible Telecommunications Carrier designations under section 214 (e)(6) of 47 U.S.C. In response to this request, please be advised that section 5 (6)(a) of the New York State Public Service Law provides that:

Application of the provisions of this chapter to cellular telephone services is suspended unless the commission, no sooner than one year after the effective date of this subdivision, makes a determination, after notice and hearing, that suspension of the application of provisions of this chapter shall cease to the extent found necessary to protect the public interest.

The New York State Public Service Commission has not made a determination as of this date that regulation should be reinstituted under section 5 (6)(a) of the Public Service Law. Consequently, based on the representation by i-wireless that it is a mobile virtual network operator reselling wireless services, i-wireless would not be subject to New York State Public Service Commission jurisdiction for the purpose of making an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier designation.

UTILITIES COMMISSION
RALEIGH

DOCKET NO. P-100, SUB 133c

BEFORE THE NORTH CAROLINA UTILITIES COMMISSION

In the Matter of Designation of Carriers Eligible for Universal) Carrier Support) ORDER GRANTING PETITION

BY THE COMMISSION: On August 22, 2003, North Carolina RSA3 Cellular Telephone Company, d/b/a Carolina West (Carolina West), a commercial mobile radio service (CMRS) provider, filed a Petition seeking an affirmative declaratory ruling that the Commission lacks jurisdiction to designate CMRS carrier eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC) status for the purposes of receiving federal universal service support.

In support of its Petition, Carolina West stated that it was a CMRS provider authorized by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to provide cellular mobile radio telephone service in North Carolina, and that the FCC had clearly recognized that CMRS carriers such as Carolina West may be designated as ETCs. ETC status is necessary for a provider to be eligible to receive universal service support. Section 214(e)(6) of the Telecommunications Act provides that if a state commission determines that it lacks jurisdiction over a class of carriers, the FCC is charged with making the ETC determination. The FCC has stated that, in order for the FCC to consider requests pursuant to this provision, a carrier must provide an "affirmative statement" from the state commission or court of competent jurisdiction that the state lacks jurisdiction to perform the designation. To date, several state commissions have declined to exercise such jurisdiction.

North Carolina has excluded CMRS from the definition of "public utility." See, G.S. 62-3(23). Pursuant to this, the Commission issued its Order Concerning Deregulation of Wireless Providers in Docket Nos. P-100, Sub 114 and Sub 124 on August 28, 1995, concluding that the Commission no longer has jurisdiction over cellular services. Accordingly, Carolina West has now requested the Commission to issue an Order stating that it does not have jurisdiction to designate CMRS carriers ETC status for the purposes of receiving federal universal service support.

WHEREUPON, the Commission reaches the following

CONCLUSIONS

After careful consideration, the Commission concludes that it should grant Carolina West's Petition and issue an Order stating that it lacks jurisdiction to designate ETC status for CMRS carriers. As noted above, in its August 28, 1995, Order in Docket Nos. P-100, Sub 114 and Sub 124, the Commission observed that G.S. 62-3(23), enacted on July 29, 1995, has removed cellular services, radio common carriers, personal communications services, and other services then or in the future constituting a mobile radio communications service from the Commission's jurisdiction. 47 USC 3(41) defines a "state commission" as a body which "has regulatory jurisdiction with respect to the intrastate operation of carriers." Pursuant to 47 USC 214(e)(6), if a state commission determines that it lacks jurisdiction over a class of carriers, the FCC must determine which carriers in that class may be designated as ETCs. Given these circumstances, it follows that the Commission lacks jurisdiction over CMRS services and the appropriate venue for the designation of ETC status for such services is with the FCC. Accord., Order Granting Petition, ALLTEL Communications, Inc., June 24, 2003.

IT IS, THEREFORE, SO ORDERED.

ISSUED BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION.

This the 28th day of August, 2003.

APPLICATION OF ADVANTAGE CELLULAR

ELIGIBLE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CARRIER

DOCKET NO.
02-01245

ORDER

This matter came before Chairman Sara Kyle, Director Deborah Taylor Tate and Director Pat Miller of the Tennessee Regulatory Authority (the "Authority"), the voting panel assigned in this docket, at the regularly scheduled Authority Conference held on January 27, 2003, for consideration of the Application of Advantage Cellular Systems, Inc. To Be Designated As An Eligible Telecommunications Carrier ("Application") filed on November 21, 2002.

Background

Advantage Cellular Systems, Inc. ("Advantage") is a commercial mobile radio service provider ("CMRS") seeking designation as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier ("ETC") by the Authority pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §§ 214 and 254. In its Application, Advantage asserts that it seeks ETC status for the entire study area of Dekalb Telephone Cooperative, Inc., a rural cooperative telephone company. Advantage maintains that it meets all the necessary requirements for ETC status and therefore is eligible to receive universal service support throughout its service area.

The January 27, 2003 Authority Conference

During the regularly scheduled Authority Conference on January 27, 2003, the panel of Directors assigned to this docket deliberated Advantage's Application. Of foremost consideration was the issue of the Authority's jurisdiction. The panel unanimously found that the Authority lacked jurisdiction over Advantage for ETC designation purposes.¹

This conclusion was implicitly premised on Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-104, which provides that:

The Authority has general supervisory and regulatory power, jurisdiction and control over all public utilities and also over their property, property rights, facilities, and franchises, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

For purposes of Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-104, the definition of public utilities specifically excludes, with certain exceptions not relevant to this case, "[a]ny individual, partnership, copartnership, association, corporation or joint stock company offering domestic public cellular radio telephone service authorized by the federal communications commission."

The Authority's lack of jurisdiction over CMRS providers implicates 47 U.S.C. § 214(e), which addresses the provision of universal service. Where common carriers seeking universal service support are not subject to a state regulatory commission's jurisdiction, 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(6) authorizes the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") to perform the ETC designation.²

¹ This finding is not inconsistent with the Authority's decision in In re: Universal Service Generic Contested Case, Docket 97-00883, Interim Order on Phase I of Universal Service, pp. 53-57 (May 20, 1998), in which the Authority required intrastate telecommunications carriers to contribute to the intrastate Universal Service Fund including telecommunications carriers not subject to authority of the TRA. The decision in Docket No. 97-00883 was based primarily on 47 U.S.C. § 254(f) which authorizes states to adopt regulations not inconsistent with the Federal Communications Commission's rules on Universal Service and specifically requires every telecommunications carrier that provides intrastate telecommunications services to contribute to the preservation and advancement of universal service in that state. The Interim Order was issued prior to the effective date of 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(6).

² 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(6) states:

(6) Common carriers not subject to state commission jurisdiction

In the case of a common carrier providing telephone exchange service and exchange access that is not subject to the jurisdiction of a State commission, the Commission shall upon request designate such a common carrier that meets the requirements of paragraph (1) as an eligible telecommunications carrier for a service area designated by the Commission consistent with applicable Federal and State law. Upon request and consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity, the Commission may, with respect to an area served by a rural telephone company, and shall, in the case of all other areas, designate more than one common carrier as an eligible telecommunications carrier for a service area designated under this paragraph, so long as each additional requesting carrier meets the requirements of paragraph (1). Before designating an additional eligible telecommunications carrier for an area served by a rural telephone company, the Commission shall find that the designation is in the public interest.

As a matter of "state-federal comity," the FCC requires that carriers seeking ETC designation "first consult with the state commission to give the state commission an opportunity to interpret state law."³ Most carriers that are not subject to a state regulatory commission's jurisdiction seeking ETC designation must provide the FCC "with an affirmative statement from a court of competent jurisdiction or the state commission that it lacks jurisdiction to perform the designation."⁴

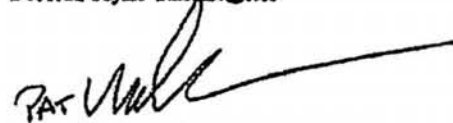

The panel noted that the FCC is the appropriate forum for Advantage to pursue ETC status pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(6). This Order shall serve as the above mentioned affirmative statement required by the FCC.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The Application of Advantage Cellular Systems, Inc. To Be Designated As An Eligible Telecommunications Carrier is dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

Ex Parte, in re: Implementation of Requirements of § 214(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996

IN RE:

APPLICATION OF VIRGINIA CELLULAR LLC

CASE NO: PUC010263

For designation as an eligible telecommunications provider under 47 U.S.C. § 214(e) (2)

ORDER

On September 15, 1997, the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") established the docket in Case No. PUC970135 to consider the requests of local exchange carriers ("LECs") to be designated as eligible telecommunications carriers ("ETC designation") to receive universal service support pursuant to § 214(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, 47 U.S.C. § 251 et seq., ("Act") and associated Federal Regulations.¹ The Commission's exercise of its jurisdiction under § 214(e) (2) of the Act has been to establish a simple and streamlined process for telecommunications carriers to certify their eligibility with a minimum of regulatory burden placed upon each applicant.

All Virginia carriers receiving an ETC designation have merely been required to file an affidavit which, among other matters, certifies that all requirements of the Act for designation are met.²

Until the above-captioned Application was filed in Case No. PUC010263 by Virginia Cellular LLC ("Virginia Cellular" or "Applicant") for ETC designation, these proceedings have been uncontested. This is the first application by a Commercial Mobile Radio Service ("CMRS") carrier for ETC designation.³ Pursuant to the Order Requesting Comments, Objections, or Requests for Hearing, issued by the Commission on January 24, 2002, the Virginia Telecommunications Industry Association ("VTIA") and NTELOS Telephone Inc. ("NTELOS") filed their respective comments and requests for hearing on February 20, 2002. Virginia Cellular filed Reply Comments on March 6, 2002.⁴

The comments of NTELOS and VTIA both contest the sufficiency of the Application and claim Virginia Cellular has failed to demonstrate how the public interest will be served.⁵ NTELOS and VTIA each allude in their comments to other expected applications for ETC designation by wireless and CLEC carriers to follow this case of first impression. For that reason, we are asked by VTIA and NTELOS to convene a hearing and establish certain standards for the provisioning of the nine services specified in 47 C.F.R. § 54.101.⁶ Each applicant is required to provide these nine services to be eligible for ETC designation.

² See Order issued November 21, 1997, in Case No. PUC970135, pp. 2-4 ("November 21, 1997, Order"). Also, the annual certification procedure to comply with 47 C.F.R. §§ 54.313 and 314 has been reduced to filing a form affidavit approved by the Commission in a Preliminary Order, issued August 29, 2001, in Case No. PUC010172.

³ Virginia Cellular is a CMRS carrier as defined in 47 U.S.C. § 153(27) and is authorized as the "A-band" cellular carrier for the Virginia 6 Rural Service Area, serving the counties of Rockingham, Augusta, Nelson, and Highland and the cities of Harrisonburg, Staunton, and Waynesboro.

VTIA further comments that "[i]t is not clear how the designation of Virginia Cellular as an ETC will affect the distribution of Universal Funds to the existing carriers in any given rural exchange area." Virginia Cellular replies that this "macroeconomic concern" need not be addressed with this Application. Rather, the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") and the Federal State Joint Board on Universal Service

⁵ § 214(a)(2) of the Act requires that an ETC designation in areas served by a rural telephone company be based upon a finding that the designation is in the public interest. The Commission did recognize in its November 21, 1997, Order that any carrier seeking ETC designation in a rural area would have the burden of proving that such designation is in the public interest if challenged. Virginia Cellular is seeking ETC designation in the service territories of the following rural telephone companies: Shenandoah Telephone Company ("Shenandoah"), Clifton Forge Waynesboro Telephone Company ("NTELOS"), New Hope Telephone Company, North River Cooperative, Highland Telephone Cooperative, and Mountain Grove-Williamsville Telephone Company ("MGW").

⁶ The nine services required to be offered include: voice grade access to the public switched network; local usage; dual tone multi-frequency signaling or its functional equivalent; single-party service or its functional equivalent; access to emergency services; access to operator services; access to interexchange service; access to directory assistance; and toll limitation for qualifying low-income consumers. Also, the services must be advertised in appropriate media sources. See In Re: Federal-State Joint Board of Universal Service, Report and Order, CC Docket No. 96-45, ¶ 145 (May 8, 1997) ("Universal Service Report & Order").

are reported by Virginia Cellular to be conducting ongoing proceedings to ensure the solvency of the high-cost support fund.⁷ Presumably, VTIA views any public interest served by Virginia Cellular's ETC designation to depend upon whether there would be a consequent diminution of universal service funds.

Virginia Cellular cites the authority of § 214(e)(6) of the Act for this Commission to send Applicant to the FCC for ETC designation if this Commission declines to act on its Application.⁸ In its Reply Comments, Virginia Cellular reports that the "FCC has been actively processing ETC applications on behalf of states which have declined to exercise jurisdiction [over CMRS carriers]. Its internal processing time has been six months, and it has met that timeline in almost all of its proceedings [and] . . . most, if not all of the issues raised by the commenters have been previously addressed by the FCC in its prior orders involving applications for ETC status."⁹

The Commission finds that § 214(e)(6) of the Act is applicable to Virginia Cellular's Application as this Commission has not asserted jurisdiction over CMRS carriers and that the ⁸ Pursuant to § 332(c)(3), 47 U.S.C. § 332(c)(3), state regulation of the entry of or the rates charged by any commercial mobile service or any private mobile service is preempted. The Commission has deregulated all Virginia radio common carriers and cellular mobile radio communications carriers. See Final Order issued October 23, 1995, Case No. PUC950062.

Applicant should apply to the FCC for ETC designation.¹⁰ The Applicant points out that if Virginia Cellular is designated as an ETC carrier, then the Commission must redefine the service areas of NTELOS and Shenandoah, pursuant to 47 C.F.R.

§ 54.207(c).¹¹ The Applicant has indicated a willingness to propose a plan to redefine these companies' service areas and may submit such a plan with its application to the FCC for ETC designation.

If necessary, this Commission will participate with the FCC and Federal-State Joint Board in redefining the service areas of NTELOS and Shenandoah for "the purpose of determining universal service obligations and support mechanisms." (47 C.F.R.

§ 54.207(a))¹² Although the FCC will make the final determination on Virginia Cellular's requests, we need to leave this docket open in case there is additional action we must take with respect to defining the service areas of NTELOS and Shenandoah.¹³

¹⁰ The action is similar to that taken by the Commission in Case No. PUC010172 in its August 29, 2001, Order that required cooperatives to certify directly with the FCC.

¹¹ The Commission believes that the service area of MGW does not necessarily need to be redefined if Virginia Cellular is designated as an ETC in that territory. However, if the FCC determines otherwise, the Commission will consider additional action if necessary.

¹² Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 54.207(c), if the Applicant proposes to redefine these two companies' service areas, the FCC's procedures require the Commission's agreement on the definitions.

¹³ At this juncture, it is unclear whether the Commission will need to address the redefinitions once disaggregation plans are filed at the FCC pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 54.315(a).

NOW UPON CONSIDERATION of all the pleadings of record and the applicable law, the Commission is of the opinion that Virginia Cellular should request the FCC to grant the requested ETC designation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(6).

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT Case No. PUC010263 will remain open for further order of the Commission.

AN ATTESTED COPY hereof shall be sent by the Clerk of the Commission to: all LECs certified in the Commonwealth of Virginia, as set out in Appendix A of this Order; David A. LaFuria, Esquire, Lukas Nace Gutierrez & Sachs, 1111 Nineteenth Street, N.W., Suite 1200, Washington, D.C. 20036; C. Meade Browder, Jr., Senior Assistant Attorney General, Division of Consumer Counsel, Office of Attorney General, 900 East Main Street, Second Floor, Richmond, Virginia 23219; William F. Caton, Acting Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Office of the Secretary, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554; and the Commission's Office of General Counsel and Division of Communications.
